

TWIGGS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

OPEN HOUSE

Saturday, February 11, 2012

10:00 AM – 2:00 PM

The Twiggs County Sheriff's Office will be hosting an Open House this weekend.

The Open House will be held on Saturday, February 11, 2012, from 10:00 AM until 2:00 PM at the Sheriff's Office in Jeffersonville.

Please come out to "meet and greet" your local law enforcement. Bring the whole family.

There will be K-9 demonstrations, a tour of our offices, a tour of the equipment, to include:

- DUI trailer
- hazmat trailer
- crime scene van
- CSU quick response truck
- CSU and patrol units
- Sheriff's hazmat tanker used by the fire departments
- Twiggs County fire truck
- GBI crime scene unit
- Department of Natural Resources.

Free child safety seat inspections and demonstrations will be provided.

Tours of the new Sheriff's Office annex that houses the E911 center, records, crime lab, investigations, medical, and command staff will be provided to the public.

The Friends of the Sheriff's Office will have a booth and will be giving out information on how you can support your Sheriff's Office by joining. They will also be selling raffle tickets for a shotgun to be given away on March 1, 2012. Refreshments will be served.

Over the last two years, the Twiggs County Sheriff's Office has received over $350,000 in federal grants. These grants were used to purchase much-needed equipment. The new equipment will be on display and its uses will be explained.

Please make an attempt to come out and have a day of fun.
